Mantissa Group LLC Appoints Kevin Kelly as President; Don Desiderato to Serve as CEO and Chair of the Advisory Board

Parrish, FL — February 2, 2026 — Mantissa Group LLC today announced the appointment of Kevin Kelly as President, effective immediately. In this role, Kelly will assume responsibility for daily operations, company growth, industry innovation, and sales, as Mantissa Group advances its strategic vision to become a premier management consulting company.

Kelly brings a strong track record of operational leadership and growth-focused execution and will play a central role in scaling Mantissa Group’s capabilities, expanding its market presence, and delivering high-impact value to clients.

In conjunction with this appointment, Don Desiderato will serve as Chief Executive Officer and Chair of the Advisory Board, working directly with Kelly to guide corporate strategy, foster innovation, and support the firm’s long-term growth objectives. As CEO, Desiderato will focus on executive leadership, vision, and advisory oversight, ensuring alignment with Mantissa Group’s mission to become a premier management consulting company.

“This leadership structure positions Mantissa Group for sustained growth and operational excellence,” said Desiderato. “Kevin’s leadership and execution capabilities, combined with a strong advisory framework, enable us to scale effectively while continuing to innovate for our clients.”

“I am honored to take on this role as President of Mantissa Group,” said Kevin Kelly. “Our focus will be on delivering measurable outcomes for clients through a combination of strategic insight, operational rigor, and scalable execution. Working closely with Don and the leadership team, we are committed to advancing Mantissa Group’s mission and positioning the firm as a premier management consulting company recognized for both strategy and delivery excellence.”
